DATE: 5 September 2014

YOUR REF:

Mr. Lai Chik Kun Michael
Chairman
Pui Ching Alumni Association
80 Waterloo Road
Kowloon

Dear Sir,

We act for the Baptist Convention of Hong Kong.

We are instructed that by a letter dated 3rd September 2014 issued by you circulated to various alumni of Pui Ching Primary School ("the Alumni"), you alleged that:-

1. Pui Ching Academy is of low level;
2. our client neglected and/or delayed to respond to the request of the Alumni regarding the change of name of Pui Ching Academy;
3. alleged that Pui Ching Primary School was acting like an "automatic teller machine" as its resources have been misappropriated;
4. alleged that the School Managers of Pui Ching Primary School has transferred the interests and benefits of Pui Ching Primary School to other entities.

You made such allegation despite your knowledge that our clients on 15th August 2014 resolved that Pui Ching Academy would not be using Block K of Pui Ching Primary School and that our client would deal with the matter relating to change of name of Pui Ching Academy after the disposition of the civil action against our client instituted by Mr. Koo Ming Kown.

Turning a blind eye to the actions taken by our client and still issuing the said letter containing the aforesaid untrue and misleading statements could result in libel proceedings being taken against you.

Yours faithfully
